

Ministerio de Relaciones Exteriores

AMBASSADOR JULIO EDUARDO MARTINETTI MACEDO

Vice Minister of Foreign Affairs since April 22, 2015

Career diplomat at the Peruvian Foreign Service with 36 years of professional experience at the Peruvian Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

Born in Arequipa in 1955. Joined the Peruvian Foreign Service in 1979. Promoted to Ambassador on January 1, 2007.

Positions held abroad:

- 2012-2015: Ambassador of Peru to Saudi Arabia and Non-Resident Ambassador of Peru to Bahrain and to the Sultanate of Oman
- 2010-2012: Ambassador of Peru to the Hellenic Republic (Greece) and Non-Resident Ambassador to Bulgaria and to Albania
- 2001-2004: Alternate Permanent Representative of Peru to UNESCO
- 1999-2001: Minister at the Embassy of Peru in Argentina.
- 1993-1996: Consul - General of Peru in Arica, Chile
- 1991-1993: Counselor at the Embassy of Peru in Colombia
- 1986-1988: First Secretary at the Embassy of Peru in the United States of America
- 1982-1986: Third Secretary at the Permanent Mission of Peru to the OAS.

Positions held at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs

- 2005-2015: Director General for Border Development
- 1997-1999: Director General for North American, Central American and the Caribbean Affairs.
- 1996: Head of the United Nations Desk
- 1991: Acting Director of Press and Broadcasting
- 1990: Officer at the Economic Promotion Bureau
- 1988: Head of the United States Desk
- 1981-1982: Officer at the Colombia and Venezuela Desk
- 1979-1980: Officer at the Chile-Bolivia Desk.

Academic background

- 1972-1975: Pontifical Catholic University of Peru: Humanities and Social Sciences studies.
- 1976-1978: Peruvian Diplomatic Academy: Career Diplomat degree and International Relations degree.
- 1980-1981: Oxford University Foreign Service Programme Scholarship: Foreign Service Certificate
-

Ministerio de Relaciones Exteriores

- 1987-1988: Georgetown University Scholarship (Washington DC): Studies on international business and diplomacy.
- 1988: Peruvian Diplomatic Academy: XXVII Specialization course for diplomats
- 1989: Peruvian Diplomatic Academy: XXVIII Specialization course for diplomats
- 2006-2007: San Marcos National University: Diploma on Security and National Defense.

Ambassador Martinetti has represented Peru in several bilateral and multilateral meetings, having acted as well as president of different inter-agency committees. He has been Professor of Theory on International Negotiations at the Peruvian Diplomatic Academy and has also participated as a speaker on Border Development and Integration Politics issues in numerous national, regional and international fora.

Languages spoken by Viceminister Martinetti: Spanish and English.